

Statement of Terms and Conditions of Occupancy

I. INTRODUCTION

The purpose of this document is to establish the Winter Break terms and conditions of occupancy in the University in the University-owned residence halls. This document and the Housing Application together constitute an offer by the University to contract with the student for University-owned space in housing facilities. The University requires that students under 18 years of age have this contract co-signed or signed via digital proxy by a parent, guardian, or another person willing to guarantee payment of the fees for the period specified. When this contract is signed and returned to the University, it establishes a binding contract between the student (and guarantor) and Mississippi State University.

II. ENROLLMENT STATUS

Winter break residents must have attended MSU as enrolled students for the preceding fall semester and be currently enrolled at Mississippi State University for the proceeding winter term and spring semester. Acceptance of this contract by the University does not constitute a commitment of admission to the University. Students who withdraw from Mississippi State University at any time during the contract period may be subject to eviction at the University's discretion.

III. OCCUPANCY

This housing contract is for space within a University-owned residence hall system or other assigned location and not for a specific building or room and may not be transferred or assigned to another person. The space may not be sublet, leased, or rented to anyone else at any time. The student agrees not to allow any persons other than the assigned roommate to live in the residence hall room or other assigned location. Violation of this restriction is considered serious and may result in fines, eviction from the residence halls, or other disciplinary action as sanctioned by the University including suspension from the University. The period of occupancy begins at noon on December 13, 2024 and ends at 2:00 PM on January 12, 2025.

IV. INCREASE OF RENTAL RATE

Since it is not possible at the time of contracting to determine projected utility or housing fee increases, the University reserves the right, subject to the order of the Board of Trustees of Institutions of Higher Learning, to raise, lower, or modify fees without notice. Approved rates are available at www.housing.msstate.edu.

V. CANCELLATION OR SUSPENSION OF THE CONTRACT

CONTRACTS CANNOT BE CANCELLED AFTER NOVEMBER 22, 2024 WITHOUT FEES. ANY STUDENT WHO HAS NOT CANCELLED THEIR CONTRACT ON OR BEFORE NOVEMBER 22, 2024 WILL BE RESPONSIBLE FOR HOUSING FEES FOR THE WINTER BREAK.

A. By the Student

A contract for the winter break, which has been completed and submitted by the student and accepted by the Department of Housing and Residence Life on or before November 22, 2024, constitutes an agreement to reside within the available break housing accommodations and may be canceled if written notification is received on or before November 22, 2024. Contracts for the winter break cannot be canceled after November 22, 2024, unless approved through the Housing Contract Appeal process. Contracts in effect on November 22, 2024, will be executed and applicable charges will be billed to the student's MSU account. FAILURE TO OCCUPY AN ASSIGNED SPACE DOES NOT CONSTITUTE A RELEASE FROM THE HOUSING CONTRACT WITH THE UNIVERSITY.

B. By the University

1. Destruction or Unavailability of Space: In the event that the accommodations assigned to the student are destroyed or made unavailable and the University does not furnish other accommodations, the contract shall terminate. Rights and liabilities of the parties hereto shall cease, and payments previously made by the student shall be refunded on a nightly pro-rated basis for the period during which accommodations were not available to the student. If the University can provide other accommodations, then this contract will remain in force.

2. Violation of Policy or Terms: The University may cancel the contract if the student fails to meet the full terms and conditions stated herein or for violation of policies or regulations of the University or Housing and Residence Life as stated at www.msstate.edu/web/security.html or www.housing.msstate.edu, which are made a part of this contract by reference. The referenced websites detail students' contractual obligations, housing regulations, the judicial process, visitation policies, and services. Cancellation of the contract for the aforementioned reasons may result in the eviction of the student upon 48 hours' notice, except where the University determines that the continued residency of the student would pose a danger to the life, limb, health, or general well-being of other members of the residential community, in which case the student may be evicted immediately. If the student is dismissed from the University or residence halls for a violation of the Student Code of Conduct, the student will not be released from the financial obligation of this contract. The student may appeal for release from the housing contract as outlined under Section V.C. The University reserves the right to amend or change any policy, regulation, or procedure where it is determined to be in the best interest or safety of the student or University. Such changes will be communicated to the student and will be part of this contract by reference hereto.

C. Student Appeals of the Housing Contract: Students with sudden and unforeseeable personal circumstances, such as a severe medical condition or extreme financial hardship may be in sudden need of alternative housing. Under such circumstances, a student may submit an appeal to cancel their housing contract. The Housing Contract Appeal form and supporting documents must be submitted to the Department of Housing and Residence Life. A $50 contract appeal fee is required for an appeal to be reviewed by the Housing Appeals Committee regardless of the outcome. Students denied by the committee may request to forward their appeal to the Housing Appeal Review Board ("Review Board"). Review Board decisions are final. The Review Board is a University Standing Committee reporting to the Vice-President of Student Affairs. Any release granted by the Review Board is subject to a $400 cancellation fee unless such fee is waived by the Housing Director or their designee for extenuating circumstances.

VI. GENERAL PROCEDURES AND POLICIES

A. Liability for Damage or Loss: The University does not assume any legal obligation to pay for the loss of or damage to the student's personal property if it occurs in its buildings or on its grounds before, during, or after the period of the contract. The student or parent/guardian is encouraged to carry appropriate insurance to cover such losses.

B. Responsibility for Room: The student is responsible for the accommodations assigned and shall reimburse the University for damages within or to said accommodations. Charges for damages and/or necessary cleaning will be assessed to the student, or students, by the University and must be paid promptly. Failure to pay assessments will result in a hold on a student's registration, graduation, and/or transcript.

C. Partial Occupancy: University housing rooms are to be occupied by two or three students, except for the approved single-occupancy or approved private assignments. In cases where one of the occupants moves from the assigned space, the student who remains agrees to move to another room, to accept another roommate, or to seek approval for a private occupancy room and pay the room rate of a space and a half. Where there is no other student with whom to consolidate, the student agrees that the area must be maintained in a manner by the occupant that will allow another student to move in immediately. The University reserves the right to reassign residents during the semester to consolidate vacant spaces and to increase occupancy. Increases in occupancy will conform to prevailing occupancy and health standards.

D. Financial Obligation: While this contract is in effect, the student is required to meet the financial obligations of this contract. Winter Break Housing fees are charged through the Account Services Office. Students must pay their accounts in accordance with the policies of that office.

E. Assignments and Room Changes: The University encourages diversity and does not make housing assignments on a segregated basis with regard to race, religion, color, national origin, or disability. Assignments are held through the residence hall opening, but accommodations are not guaranteed for those arriving late or failing to check-in without making arrangements with the Department of Housing and Residence Life before the residence hall opening. If for any reason the student is required or allowed to move to a different residence hall, the student will be charged or refunded the difference between the two rates on a pro-rated basis for the remainder of the term. Housing assignment changes must be approved by the Community or Graduate Residence Director, or the Housing Assignments Office. Approved room/hall changes occur during designated periods during each semester. A $50 fee may be assessed for illegal room changes or unauthorized early arrivals.

F. Right of University to Relocate Students: The University reserves the right to relocate students from one space to another when it is determined, in its sole and absolute discretion, that the move is in the University's or student's best interest, including, but not limited to renovation, maintenance, construction, roommate conflicts, health and safety, or disciplinary sanctions. Students who are relocated by the University must complete the move within 48 hours of notification. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the University reserves the right to relocate a student to another facility immediately or cancel this contract in the event the University, in its sole and absolute discretion, determines that a health, safety, or other exigency circumstance exists that requires immediate relocation and/or cancellation of this contract.

G. Keys and Access Cards: The student agrees not to loan/duplicate keys and/or access cards. Lost/stolen keys or access cards must be reported immediately. Keys and/or access cards must be returned when occupancy is terminated. The cost of re-keying the lock for an illegally duplicated key or any key not returned, whether the key(s) is/are lost or stolen will be charged to the student.

H. Official Check-Out: Official check-out from a residence hall consists of signing the appropriate inventory and check-out forms, removing personal belongings, cleaning the room, returning the key(s), and meeting with a Resident Advisor or by completing an Express Check-out form. Students who fail to follow the proper procedure to check out of the residence hall may be assessed a $50 improper check-out fee. Students who set up a date and time to check out with their Resident Advisor and fail to meet at the agreed-upon date and time may be assessed an additional fee of $25. Students who fail to check out of their residence hall at the end of the occupancy period may be assessed an additional $40 per night. These penalties are in addition to any other damage charges, service fees, or penalties for which the student may be liable.

I. Overflow Accommodations: The University reserves the right to make assignments to temporary or overflow housing to accommodate requests for housing. The policies and procedures contained within this document are also applicable to overflow housing assignments, which may be made on a temporary basis at the beginning of each semester.

J. Prohibited Items: The possession or use of firearms, ammunition, explosives, fireworks, candles, halogen lamps, and other items detailed in the policies and regulations of University or Housing and Residence Life as stated at www.msstate.edu/web/security.html or www.housing.msstate.edu is prohibited.

VII. RIGHT TO ENTRY OF PREMISES

A. Right to Enter: The University has the right to enter the leased premises for inspection at reasonable hours and whenever necessary to make repairs, alterations, safety/health inspections, pest control, etc., of the room/unit. Additionally, the University reserves the right to enter the premises to respond to an emergency.

B. Right to Inspection: The rooms/unit will be periodically inspected for health/safety violations. If violations are found, the resident(s) will have sufficient time to correct the violation. The student will be subject to the student conduct process if the violation is not corrected. Continued violations may result in judicial action and could also separately result in termination of the lease by the University.

C. Expiration or Cancellation of Contract: Upon the expiration or cancellation of this contract under any of the above provisions, the University shall have the right to re-enter the premises to remove the student's property therefrom. Personal property left in a residence hall room or other assigned space after a student withdraws or fails to enroll will be considered abandoned property. Upon discovery, a student may be notified of the removal of their abandoned property from the room to a secure location within the residence hall and be given 48 hours to claim their property. The student expressly waives the right to be notified of the University staff's re-entry, tenancy termination, withdrawal, or demand for possession. Breach by the student of any of the duties established by this agreement authorizes the use of any remedy available in law or equity. If the student fails to pay rental fees, additional fees, and charges by the dates required by this agreement, the University is entitled to pursue any or all of the following actions: terminate this contract; evict the student from University housing; stop registration; and withhold transcript of grades, diploma, or other records and documents maintained by the University.
